Position Title: Bereavement Coordinator

Role Type: Fixed Term until 30 June 2021 (with a possibility of extension)

Reports To: Statewide Programs Manager

Position Located: Brisbane (Spring Hill)

Background

Palliative Care Queensland (PCQ) is a state-wide charity supporting all Queenslanders to live, die and grieve well. We have been operating for over 30 years and have more than 300 members.

The organisation has a sector, advocacy and health professional focused arm with multiple programs including Palliative Care in Queensland and Connecting End of Life Care and key events including statewide palliative care education mornings and an annual Summit and Awards.

The social, community and consumer arm of PCQ is Queensland Compassionate Communities (QCC) and has programs including Ambulance Wish Queensland, Volunteer Village and Connecting QCC and key events including the Good Life Good Death expo.

Position Purpose

This position will coordinate PCQ grief and bereavement activities. This includes implementation of the Bereavement Project, which aims to provide supports to develop and enhance the capacity of individuals, organisations and communities to deal effectively with loss, and through the provision of advice to the Strategy and Policy Team on grief and bereavement issues in order to inform strategy, policy and to raise awareness of grief and bereavement.

Benefits

- Salary packaging benefits and Employee Assistance Program
- A collaborative team environment that encourages new ideas and contributions
- An organisation that promotes an inclusive culture, work-life balance, and flexibility
- Brisbane office is located near public transport (near central station)

Main Tasks and Responsibilities

- Develop and coordinate the PCQ Bereavement Project, including but not limited to:
  - Establish and support a statewide bereavement network
  - Work with stakeholders to identify gaps and opportunities, map existing grief and bereavement services, supports and initiatives throughout Queensland
  - Draft frameworks, processes, procedures and forms to assist with standardising activities
  - Collate, monitor, record and report the issues, innovations and activities
  - Identify and/or create and disseminate best practice bereavement resources, tools and education materials for health professionals and community
  - Ensure project activities align with compliance and reporting requirements
  - Provide bereavement support to individuals and groups of people experiencing loss, ageing, dying and grief, by coordinating support groups (face to face and online) and provision of counselling, needs assessment and navigation
  - Lead the scoping, planning and provision of bereavement training activities for the PCQ Volunteer Village, health professionals and the Queensland community
- Work with the Strategy and Policy team to contribute to the development of submissions, positions, and recommendations to strengthen grief and bereavement capacity and transform palliative care systems and supports in Queensland, including but not limited to the priority focus areas of:
  - Disaster preparedness and emergency response initiatives
  - The Queensland government response to the Parliament Inquiry into age care, end-of-life and palliative care and voluntary assisted dying
• Coordinate and participate in relevant advisory and working groups, and represent PCQ at various external forums where appropriate (travel may be required)
• Apply sound project coordination principles to complex, multi-stakeholder activities
• Support efforts and provide additional advice to other projects as a PCQ team member in line with the positions award
