

Things PCQ Members can do during NPCW 24

- 1. Encourage your colleagues, organisation, friends and family to become a member of Palliative Care Queensland palliativecareqld.org.au/become-a-member
- 2. Download, read and share the 2024 Palliative Care in Qld Priorities Report palliativecareqld.org.au/publications
- 3. Support our Ambulance Wish Queensland program by booking a ticket to our signature event of the year - the Ambulance Wish Queensland Gala Dinner on Saturday, May 25th events.humanitix.com/ambulance-wish-queensland-fundraising-gala-dinner
- 4. Attend and encourage your friends, neighbours and family to attend the PalliLEARN courses facilitated during NPCW 24 palliativecareqld.org.au/events
- 5. Visit us at King George Square on Friday 24th of May (8am - 1pm) and support PCQ in advocating for improved palliative care throughout Queensland.
- 6. Visit one of the many Queensland iconic structures that will light up orange during NPCW24, in support of Palliative Care. Share your photos via email or tag us on social media
#NPCW24 #lightupPCQ #MattersOfLifeAndDeath Share your "Light Up Qld" images with us:
hello@palliativecareqld.org.au
- 7. Download our NPCW awareness card and take a photo of yourself and your community group. Tag and and share it with us on social media.
#NPCW24 #PalliativeCareQld #MattersOfLifeAndDeath Share your images with us:
hello@palliativecareqld.org.au
- 8. Prioritise and reflect on conversations about serious illness, dying, death and grief.
Recognise these as inherent aspects of the human experience that impact everybody at some point of their life
- 9. Encourage your network to make a tax deductible donation to Palliative Care Queensland. Your donation helps us to increase awareness of palliative care in our community palliativecareqld.org.au/pcq-donation